Explaining Salvation to Young Children

Some children may be prepared by God's Spirit to accept Christ as their Savior. Respond to the Holy Spirit's work by setting aside time to talk individually with those students. Following are truths you might share from your Bible:

- God loves us. He wants us in His family (John 3:16; Gal. 3:26).
- All of us have done wrong things. These wrong things are called sins. Our sins keep us from being part of God's family (Rom. 3:23).
- God sent Jesus to die for the wrong things we do. He died to take away our sins (John 3:36; Rom. 5:6, 8; Col. 1:14).
- We need to tell Jesus we are sorry for the wrong things we do. We can tell Jesus we love Him and want to become a part of God's family. When we do this, He is glad to have us in His family (John 1:12-13).

When sharing, consider:

- Inviting a child to respond to each truth by asking what he or she understands.
- Letting the child ask questions.
- Telling the parents about the child's interest or decision.

We act with the Holy Spirit in helping children to understand their sin and need of a Savior. He will show us how to guide our students gently along God's path. Pray that whether it is today or years from now, all our children will receive the gift of salvation and will grow in Christian discipleship.
